B. D. Fin Johnson Is Candidate For Hancock Sheriff

B. D. "Fip" Johnson has announced his candidacy for Hancock County Sheriff and Tax Collector in the forthcoming Democratic Primary Election in August.

His official statement follows:

To the People of Hancock County:

Eight years ago I received the honor of being elected to the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector of Hancock County by the largest majority of votes in the entire history of this county.

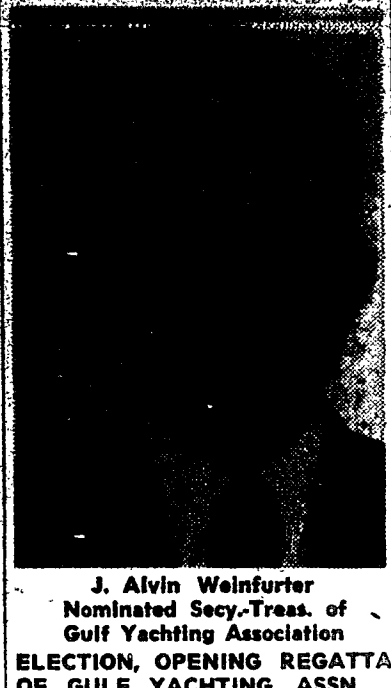

I want to take this means to express my thanks to each and every voter for the confidence placed in me at that time. I want to assure you that it was a privilege to have served you as Sheriff and Tax Collector of Hancock County.

Today, I am asking you, the voters of Hancock County, to place that same confidence in me that you did eight years ago. I feel, and I believe, that you all feel that I carried out my one and only promise made in my campaign, that promise being a fair and square deal for all.

If elected again, I make that same promise.

I will appreciate your vote and support in the coming election.

Sincerely,
BURTON D. "FIP" JOHNSON

Patrick Toomey Is Candidate For Constable Beat 5

Patrick P. Toomey has officially announced his candidacy for Constable, Beat Five, in the Democratic Primary Election in August.

His statement to the voters follows:

To the voters of Beat Five, Hancock County, Miss:

I am taking this means to announce my candidacy for your office of Constable, Beat Five.

Since this is my first time to run for any political office I will present to you my background and qualifications:

I was born in Hancock County 28 years ago to the late Leona and Edward Toomey and am a nephew of the late Albert Carver, who served you in the office of sheriff for many years. My education is attributed to your public schools and St. Stanislaus.

My wife, the former Catherine Lusich, and I are the parents of two young children.

I am a veteran of World War II with two years overseas duty and a present member of the American Legion, Post 139.

Before this announcement I served as your local representative for Quick and Grice Gas Company here in Hancock County.

The office of constable is one of importance here in Hancock County if operated in the proper manner. I believe I am capable of performing the duties of this office in such a way as to bring out this importance to you citizens.

I am entering the race as an independent candidate. My reputation and past performance of duties serve as a foundation for my candidacy.

I know you, as capable voters of Hancock County, will recognize my intentions of doing good and for the betterment of our community.

If elected, I will serve in the most honest and impartial manner.

Friends and citizens, I sincerely solicit your vote and political influence in my race for constable.

Respectfully,
PATRICK P. TOOMEY

Fred Curet Jr. Candidate For Hancock Sheriff

W. A. (Fred) Curet Jr. has announced his candidacy for the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector of Hancock County in the forthcoming Democratic Primary Election in August.

His official statement to the voters follows:

TO THE PEOPLE OF HANCOCK COUNTY:

Please accept this as my formal announcement as a candidate for the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector of Hancock County in the Democratic Primary to be held on the 2nd day of August, 1955.

I was born and reared in Hancock County. I am 34 years old and the son of Mr. Fred Curet, Sr., and the late Mrs. Mozella Williams Curet.

While acquiring my education, I attended the following schools: Kiln, St. Stanislaus and P.R.C.

In 1939 I enlisted and served almost 9 years in the U. S. Marine Corps; 3 years of this time was spent in a Prisoner of War Camp in Japan. Upon returning to the U. S. I re-enlisted for a 3 year period. After receiving an Honorable Discharge, I entered the Mississippi Highway Patrol Training School, which includes courses in all types of law enforcement. I was then the first citizen of Hancock County to serve as a state patrolman; and

National Guard Alert Speedy, Efficient

With speed and efficiency, Company C 890th Engr. Avn. Bn. of local National Guard was mobilized April 20 as Major General William P. Wilson, the Adjutant General, gave the order to start "Operation Minuteman."

The one-day test alert also found other Army and Air National Guard units throughout the state responding with alacrity and enthusiasm to the first training exercise of its kind ever held by the National Guard. Reports from all over the State indicated "Operation Minuteman" proceeded smoothly with virtually no interruption to normal civilian activities.

First Lt. James L. Jordan, commanding Company C, expressed himself as "well pleased" with initial results of the test alert in this area.

"As a whole, 'Operation Minuteman' proceeded according to schedule," he said. "We received the alert order at 4:00 p.m. April 20 and immediately sent out a hurry call to officers and men of the unit to report to one to their assigned stations."

"We are grateful for the fine spirit of cooperation shown by our fellow citizens and their interest in this exercise which is such an important part of our training," he declared.

"We are also highly pleased with the splendid cooperation and attention to duty of all personnel of Company C. Each of our local Guardsmen responded to the alert promptly and most enthusiastically, and made every effort to carry out his assigned duties to the best of his ability."

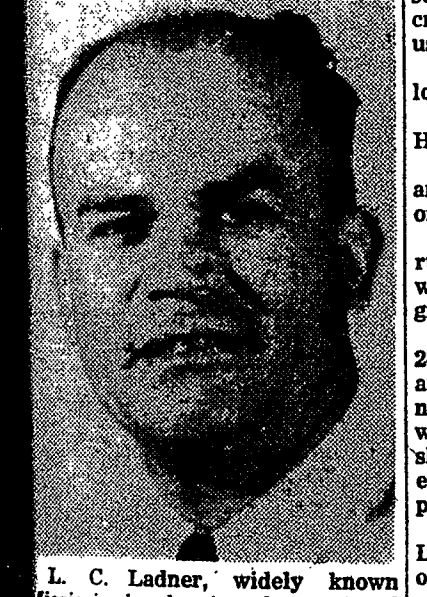

"Of course, there were some hitches, as to be expected, but 'Operation Minuteman' so far as we are concerned was one of the finest training exercises we have ever engaged in. We learned a lot from it and feel that we are even better prepared to be of service to our community, state or nation when and if our services are needed."

The order to put "Operation Minuteman" in motion was given to Mississippi National Guard units by Maj. Gen. William P. Wilson, the State Adjutant General.

In a matter of minutes the first members of the units reported to their armory, and in a surprisingly short time the unit was assembled at its assigned stations and ready to carry out training orders, also transmitted by General Wilson for the one-day test alert.

Participating in "Operation Minuteman" with Co. C. were more than 5,000 other Army and Air National Guard units in about 2,200 other communities throughout the state, the 47 other states, and in the District of Columbia, Alaska and Puerto Rico.

L. C. Ladner Is Candidate For State Senator

L. C. Ladner, widely known Mississippi educator, has entered the August Democratic primary as a candidate for the office of State Senator from Hancock, Pearl River and Lamar Counties.

Ladner is no newcomer to political campaigns. He has been in the stump and in the headquarters of other candidates in the past. He is well known in the counties in which he is making the current campaign.

Mr. Ladner is 40 years of age, and Master Mason in the Moose Lodge No. 111 of Piquette.

He was born and reared in Pearl River County, completed his high school work at Savannah High School and attended Pearl River Junior College for two years before receiving his B.S. degree from Southeastern College at Hammond, La. He completed work for his master's degree at Mississippi Southern College, Hattiesburg.

Ladner has taught school for the past 18 years as superintendent and principal in Pearl River and Harrison counties, and at present, is superintendent of the Kiln High School in Hancock County. He is also president of the Principal's Association in Hancock County.

SPRING CONCERT SLATED FRIDAY AT BAY HIGH

On Friday, April 29 at 8 p.m. Bay High School will present its Music Department in a Spring Concert in the school's auditorium. The program is under the direction of Marcel LaNasa.

First half of the program will be presented by the Bay High Band. Their selections will range from the classical, "Triumphal March" from the opera "Aida" to the contemporary, "Jazz Fizzicato" by Leroy Anderson.

As a special feature Mr. LaNasa will present the 20 members of his elementary school band in several numbers. Friday night will mark the "debut" of this group of young instrumentalists.

The second half of the program will be presented by the Chorus of 45 girls, which has recently been heard at Pearl River Junior College's Annual Choral Festival. The chorus will sing a wide variety of numbers from the sacred selections of Malotte's setting for "The Lord's Prayer" to the popular "All the Things You Are." Mrs. Schultz will be accompanist for this group.

The public is heartily invited to attend. For the benefit of the band and chorus funds, a small fee of 50c for adults and 25c for children is being charged.

Health Officer Discounts Danger From Shots

By JIM PFEIFFER

"There is no cause for alarm regarding possibility of contracting polio from shots given Hancock County Children," Dr. C. M. Shipp, county health officer, said today.

Dr. Shipp, referring to radio and TV reports last night regarding 11 cases of polio reportedly developing after vaccination with a Cutter Laboratories vaccine, said none of the Cutter product had been used in this county.

"We have vaccinated for polio in every county in Mississippi, and not a single case of polio has been reported among those who received the Eli Lilly vaccine used here," Dr. Shipp declared.

The health officer also expressed disbelief that the Cutter vaccine was responsible for the 11 cases of polio reportedly following vaccination.

"Among the many thousands who were given the Cutter vaccine, hundreds of cases, rather than 11, would have resulted," he declared.

He stressed the importance of sending children back for the second shot. "I assure you we will use the same safe Eli Lilly vaccine that they got on the first shot," Dr. Shipp said.

The county health officer said the Cutter Laboratories, a Berkeley, Calif., company, was being thoroughly investigated by competent epidemiologists.

Vaccine for the second in the series of shots for Hancock County first and second grade children will not be available by the scheduled date, the local Health Department was notified late Tuesday.

The interval between shots now probably will be four weeks, instead of two as originally planned.

Dr. Shipp said there apparently "was no connection whatsoever" between the delay in administering the second shot and the 11 cases.

1. The wide publicity from the four newspapers in these counties (Hancock and Pearl River) and the broadcasting station at Piquette kept the people informed.

2. The county superintendent of education willingly gave use of school buses and assigned drivers.

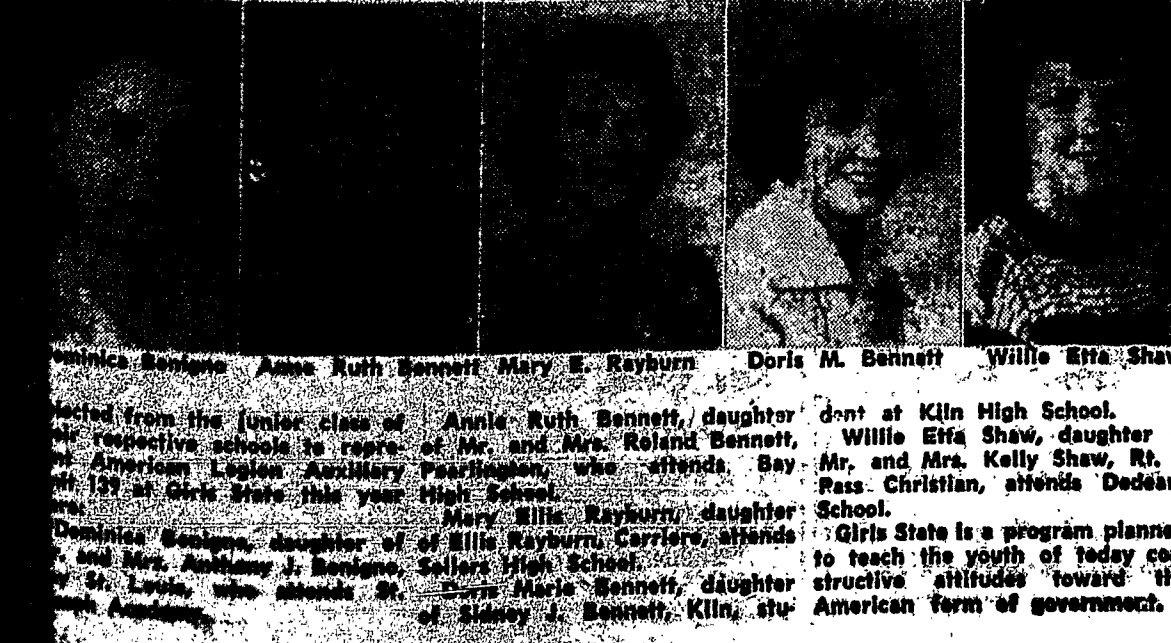

3. Bus schedules were made by the superintendents. These schedules were maintained, and the health department knew when each group of school children would arrive and just how many would come. This gave ample time to sterilize all equipment between buses.

4. Volunteer nurses gave their time and talent.

5. Teachers checked the vaccination requests and made out the permanent cards for the records.

6. To maintain discipline and give the children a break, the Crosby Ice Cream Co. of Piquette gave each child a cup of ice cream.

To Represent Legion Auxiliary At Girls State

Girls State is a program planned to teach the youth of today constructive attitudes toward the American form of government.

Bay High Prom Is Held Friday

On Friday evening, April 22 the Junior Class and their Sponsors, Miss Julia Blaine and William Brode, entertained the Seniors and Faculty at a Prom given at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club.

The Club was very beautifully decorated with palms and roses. The theme "Memories and Melodies" was carried out on the painted background, which represented two seniors reminiscing at a Prom. The entrance and walls were decorated with musical notes, footballs, basketballs, tennis shoes and other symbols covered with glitter.

Connie Ripple, president of the Junior Class, welcomed the guests and Kent Seiler, president of the Senior Class, presided.

John Lumpkin Is Candidate For State Senator

The Hancock County Eagle authorized to announce the name of John Lumpkin as a candidate for the office of State Senator from the three counties of Hancock, Pearl River and Lamar.

To the People of Hancock County:

First let me thank you for your loyal support of me in the past. I have tried to make that confidence by conscientious and fair service to you.

If I am honored with the credit trust, which I seek, I labor earnestly morning, noon and night for the best interests of you and yours.

I am a native son of this area, and well known in every part of the county. I have served in your State Assembly for over 10 years. I have been in the capacity of a legislator for all of the past 10 years in my career.

I will prove to you that I will serve you faithfully during this year.

New Residents to be Welcomed

Mrs. Charles Beyer and Mrs. Marguerite Kern will act as official hostesses on Wednesday evening of each week when the Youth Center building will be opened to adults of the community.

The need for new residents of the entire county to meet established residents and to take part in community life has been a problem which worried these two women. With the cooperation of the Chamber of Commerce and the Board of the Youth Center, it was agreed that on Wednesday evenings the center would be opened to any adults that would like to come.

They would be enabled through this medium to become acquainted with each other and with a number of the town people who would be there to receive them. All facilities of the center would be at their disposal for an evening of entertainment.

It is the plan to form a new seniors club, and to make selected for the club, and to make it interesting, anyone may submit a name with a prize being awarded to the person who submits the name chosen for the club. Just write the name on a card and mail it to Mrs. Charles Beyer, P. O. Box 223.

The opening date for this project has not been set yet, but will be announced through the medium of this newspaper in a later issue.

Need Volunteers

It is the hope of Mrs. Beyer and Mrs. Kern that volunteers of established residents will work with them on this much needed project.

Anyone desiring to volunteer their services may contact Mrs. Beyer or Mrs. Kern by telephone.

Our National Guard

WITH UNITS located in more than 2,200 communities in the United States, Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico and the District of Columbia, the National Guard is America's grass roots defense force.

Its roots go deep into the fabric of the nation, reaching into great cities, towns and hamlets.

Made up 100 per cent of volunteers, Army and Air National Guard units virtually cover the Nation with a potent and ever present defense umbrella.

Guard membership—made up of volunteers from all walks of life—currently includes almost 400,000 officers and men in more than 5,600 organized units.

The Air National Guard—which made an outstanding combat record during the Korean emergency—contains over 600 organized units and almost 50,000 officers and men, including some 2500 pilots.

The Army National Guard, with more than 30,000 officers and men in over 5,000 organized units, constitutes a potent force which boasts an outstanding combat record in World War II and in Korea. Included in this fine ground force are 27 infantry and armored divisions and hundreds of combat and service support units.

Together the Army and Air National Guard—drawing its volunteer strength from the grass roots of America—form a balanced and proven fighting team that stands as an ever ready bulwark of defense against America's enemies.

When the bills introduced in the Senate and passed by the Senate, I was very disappointed to you, the people of this county.

Regardless of pressure I stayed by my obligations to you. And I elected again I will do likewise.

The seniority I have now, I gained by serving four years in the House of Representatives.

During my time in the Senate, I was requested by United States Senator Pat Harrison to organize and place into operation a work project administration in the Southern Congressional District.

Your county being one of the counties, I can point to you the permanent type of work that was done. My first request was to hard surface the road from Kiln to Bay St. Louis.

The second was the construction of the High School gymnasium. The third acquired a large amount of money spent on the seawall of South Beach. Practically all of the money earmarked for Hancock County was spent, without any cost to the county.

After attending the University of Mississippi and Mississippi Southern College, I entered the Army. Following World War I, I received an honorable discharge.

I was then associated with the Mississippi Industrial and Training School for a period of seven years. It was here that I served under W. Jacobs, who is now a resident of Morning Side, Jackson, Miss. Following that I was elected to the House of Representatives from 1928 until 1932. From there I went into the Senate until 1936.

After attending the University of Mississippi and Mississippi Southern College, I entered the Army. Following World War I, I received an honorable discharge.

I was then employed at Mississippi Southern College as their head football coach, carrying the first college football team to Hattiesburg.

I made an application for membership in the Southern Association and received it the same year. I refer you to Claude Benoit of St. Louis, the former president of the college for the degree of my success.

I agreed to stay with the job, when accepting it from the board of trustees, until I had the team built and could acquire a good coaching staff. After I had accomplished this I resigned for a Public Relations position; representing all the Food Distributors in the State of Mississippi.

As reference to my record in this job I give you the former president of the Food Distributors, W. D. Bethea of Laurel or Lonn Thompson of Gulfport.

I resigned this position to make the race for Lieutenant Governor in 1943. I was in the run-off with Governor Fielding Wright. Having very little finances I was only able to work six weeks. Regardless of this fact I received 110,000 votes.

Immediately after this I was employed by National Transport Association and Mississippi Transport Association, allowing me to name my own salary. That salary being $10,000 a year and all expenses outside of Jackson.

After a few months in that service, I was called upon and insisted upon to go to Washington to take Senator Bilbo's office, as it had been badly confused while he was away undergoing an operation at Mayo Brothers' Clinic.

I stayed with that work until his death.

Since that time I have been self employed except for several commission jobs that I have taken.

Today I am not looking for a job. I have work enough of my own to keep me busy and I can make a living from that.

At this time I will name a few of the bills that I introduced while serving in the Legislature. During the campaign I will inform you of the rest.

I was author of H.B. No. 58, fencing the Louisiana line to prevent tick re-infestation from that State. I was author of S. B. No. 37, exempting live stock from taxes.

I sponsored the constitutional amendment allowing citizens the right to vote by paying their poll tax only.

I was co-author of S. B. No. 245, an act providing for exemption from state ad valorem taxes on homesites owned by residents of this State.

I sponsored the law giving two years' contract, and a gentleman's agreement for the third year, for school transportation contracts. I am the author of the bill increasing Junior College Appropriations in 1928 from $40,000 to $80,000 and from $80,000 to $160,000 in 1930.

I was author of S. B. No. 267, Extraordinary Session, 1935, asking for an emergency appropriation of $1,300,000 for the schools of Mississippi. $1,000,000 was appropriated.

I was author of House Bill 293, taxing separate ownership minerals, and whatnot held by oil industries. The bill was passed unanimously in the house and Senate. But was repealed in 1946.

There are numbers and numbers of other bills that I have sponsored for the best interest of the State of Mississippi. These you will learn of later.

In 1943 I advocated tax on crude oil, so that all oil would be refined in Mississippi and not piped out. This was in the beginning of our oil discovery. I still am of the same opinion and will make a fight to the end for that to be done.

Over 275,000,000 barrels have already been piped out of this state into other states to be refined, taking the employment for our youth and high paid salaries into other states.

This is one of the things that we need today in the State of Mississippi.

The gas is even being piped in greater amounts than this. It is being stored in caverns and salt dome wells in northern and North Eastern States.

My conclusion I want you to know that I feel that I am better qualified today, than ever before as a legislator in both state and national law making bodies. And if elected I will give you the benefits of this training and experience at all times.

And most of all I shall be fair and impartial to everyone, and shall always work for the better interests of the three counties which I shall serve.

Sincerely yours,
JOHN LUMPKIN

Impromptu songs were rendered by J. L. Gonzales and his Rhythm Boys and Carol Johnson and the Trebles.

Highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Prom King, Kent Seltzer, and the Prom Queen, Rosemary Millinery.

Delicious refreshments were served by a group of Sophomore girls who served as waitresses. They were attired in blue dresses with white gossamer aprons to carry out the Senior colors.

As favors everyone received "Memories" which were little booklets, also in the Senior colors of blue and white.

Music was furnished by Martin Clancy and his Melody Boys of Jefferson Parish, La.

The Farmers Home Administration has been authorized to make emergency loans to eligible tunc and vegetable growers in Hancock county as a result of the recent freeze, it was announced today by Charles E. Ballard, Acting County Supervisor.

The loans also are available in George, Greene, Forest, Harrison, Jackson, Jones, Lamar, Marion, Pearl River, Perry, Pike, Stone, Walthall and Wayne counties.

To be eligible a grower must be primarily engaged in farming and devote most of his time to the actual management and operation of his farm and depend on the farm for a livelihood. Emergency loans do not take the place of local credit; they only supplement it. Those who can obtain credit from some other source on reasonable terms are not eligible.

Collide on US 90

J. L. Riddick, 322 Calver St., Biloxi, was treated in King's Daughters Hospital Saturday night following an accident when his 1955 Ford Sedan struck the rear of a half ton Chevrolet truck driven by Albert Heltmann of Bay St. Louis at the Lakeshore intersection of Highway 90 about 8:50 p.m. State Highway Patrol-Tri-er, Vestal Favre and the late Wm Kenny and Marion Crum-thirds investigated the accident. Riddick was treated for facial and hand lacerations at the local hospital and later transferred to the Biloxi Hospital.

The officers reported the damage to the truck at about $20 and to the car about $1,300.

School Construction To Be Viewed From Standpoint of Jobs Involved

Building tomorrow's schools today is the theme of a conference on school construction to be held May 23 at the University of Mississippi Center for Continuation Study.

Looking ahead to construction which will take place in Mississippi's educational program, the sponsoring organizations have planned to bring together representatives from every facet of school construction and maintenance.

Keynoting the conference with an address titled "Let's Build Tomorrow's Schools Today" will be Mr. Walter D. Cocking, editor of THE SCHOOL EXECUTIVE and THE AMERICAN SCHOOL AND UNIVERSITY.

Mr. Cocking has been associated with school building construction since 1934. He was chief specialist in school administration for President Roosevelt's Advisory Committee on Education, and is now consultant to five architectural firms on school construction problems.

Discussing the "Impact of Recent Legislation of School Building Programs" will be Mr. James T. Kendall, Jackson attorney, and Assistant State Attorney General Dugas Shands.

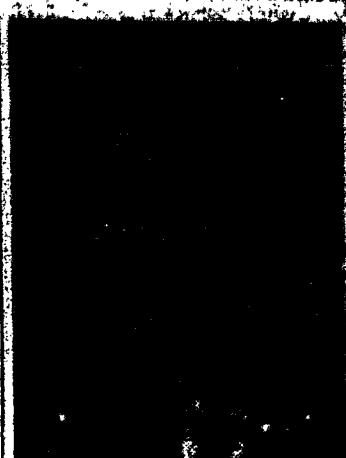

who helped write the school legislation which makes the conference imperative.

"Trends in School Building Design" will be discussed the second day of the conference by Mr. William W. Caudill, senior partner, Caudill, Rowlett, Scott and associates.

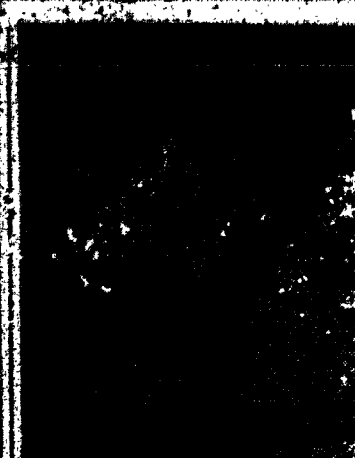

Mr. Caudill is the author of three books on architectural problems in school construction. Mr. N. W. Overstreet, Jackson architect, will serve as panel member on a panel discussion of "How the Program is Realized in the Final Building."

"Commission Regulations Relative to Compliance" will be discussed by Mr. Talley D. Riddell, chairman of the Mississippi Educational Finance Commission.

Sponsors of the conference are: the Mississippi Education Association, Mississippi Chapter, American Institute of Architects, Mississippi Association of School Administrators, Mississippi State Department of Education, and Associated Building Contractors of Mississippi.

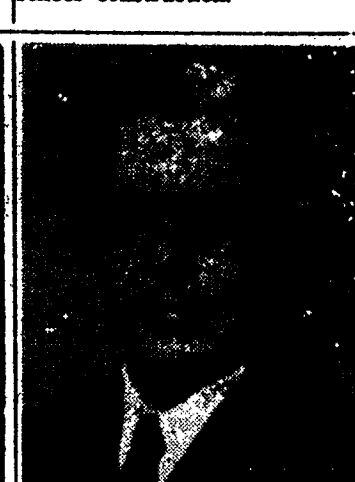

Mr. Walter D. Cocking, editor of THE SCHOOL EXECUTIVE, will draw on 21 years of school construction experience in setting the keynote for the school construction conference.

Mr. William W. Caudill, architect, has designed over 75 schools, some of which have received national awards. He is the author of three books on school construction.

Mr. N. W. Overstreet, Jackson architect, will serve on a panel discussion of "How the Program is Realized in the Final Building."

Mr. Talley D. Riddell, chairman of the Mississippi Educational Finance Commission, will speak to the conference on his commission's part in, and regulation of, the school building program.

Mrs. Joseph Jones Candidate For Unexpired Term

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

Through your kindness, I wish to take this means to thank and to extend my personal sincere appreciation, which includes the entire family of Joseph C. Jones deceased, for the many generous expressions of sympathy to us in our recent loss.

The people of this County, and particularly of Beat One, have been very kind to our family and to our deceased husband and father, Joseph C. Jones, and for which we will be grateful.

Prior to the death of my husband, he expressed his desire that I, as his widow, should fulfill his unexpired term of office as a member of the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County, Mississippi, in case he died during a term of office. It is my expressed desire not only to carry out his wishes, but to be of service to the people served by him in Beat One and throughout Hancock County, Mississippi. Should he have lived, he would have been an official of this County until January, 1955, and I have been and qualified as a candidate from Beat One to fulfill the balance of his term of office in a special election to be held on May 10th, 1955.

There have been some statements made in some of the papers by some of the candidates in our beat that they would be willing to give me the salary of the office for the balance of the unexpired term if they were elected. Frankly, I appreciate their gestures, but I am not seeking charity from my fellow citizens who aspire to office.

I feel that I can be of service for the next six months, and I have no ulterior motives in seeking the position, but only to serve the wishes of my deceased husband and to be of service to the people of my beat and Hancock County Mississippi.

Again thanking you for the use of your column for expressing our sincere appreciation, I am

Sincerely yours,
MRS. JOSEPH C. JONES

RETAIL APPAREL CLINIC SCHEDULED

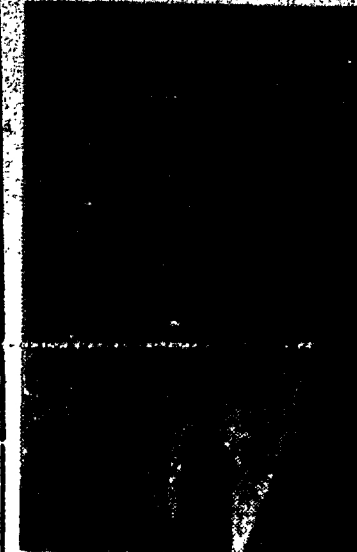

The first Retail Dry Goods and Apparel Clinic to be offered in Mississippi will take place May 10-11, 1955, at the University of Mississippi Center for Continuation Study.

Representatives from leading department stores from throughout the State planned the clinic last January in cooperation with the University.

Experts in sales promotion from various leading firms will discuss topics of vital interest to department store executives.

"Credit Operations" will be discussed by The National Retail Credit Association, and "Sales Promotion for Right Now" will be the topic of an address by Sam P. MacRae.

ROSS BARNETT ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY FOR GOVERNOR TODAY

Stressing "action plans to develop human resources to process and utilize Mississippi's raw products for greater prosperity," Ross Barnett, native Leake County lawyer and businessman, today formally announced his candidacy for Governor.

Barnett, who polled approximately 82,000 votes for Governor in his first bid for public office in 1931, issued the following statement to the people of Mississippi:

"As a candidate for Governor seeking your vote and influence you are entitled to know what I believe in, what my attitude is and will be toward the problems of our day and what I propose to do, if elected.

"In making this, my formal announcement, I acknowledge my indebtedness to you for your courtesies throughout the years and particularly for the wonderful vote you gave me in 1931 primary.

It is with true humility that I have entered this campaign for the highest office within your gift, realizing fully that if elected your governor my success will depend largely upon the blessing of Almighty God and the support and confidence of the people of this great state.

"As you know, all of my life I have represented the average men and women of this State and I promise you if elected Governor the average man and woman will receive a fair and square deal in this State. I will treat all citizens fairly and my constant concern will be the welfare of the average man.

"I promise you a sound and economical financial policy to insure that every dollar spent will receive full value and no money will be spent for any purpose not required by the needs of the citizens of this State.

"Mississippi has different problems in various sections of the

"If elected Governor, I would recommend a policy of agricultural development which would more profitably utilize all of our land, improve production and marketing methods, develop additional farm markets, where needed, and support existing farm agencies in their research and in their practical programs to increase production on a per unit basis.

"I will support an industrial program for processing our raw materials at home, which are produced in the form of cotton, crude oil, cattle, timber and other commodities, and are now being sold out of our state at their lowest market values.

"I favor maintaining, improving and expanding our BAWI program for the purpose of bringing new industry into the state and establishing a sound financial policy that will make our state more attractive to industry.

"Not only do I believe that we should encourage large manufacturing plants to locate in Mississippi, but we should be particularly attentive to the needs of small processing plants which would utilize the raw products of a particular commodity within its own area.

"As Governor, I will support a practical and constructive policy of development in our forests, and will encourage small independent land owners to put into timber production millions of idle acres to furnish raw materials for this major industry in our state.

"I favor for all our children the strongest and best public school system that we are able to give. Adequate buildings and equipment, competent administrators and capable teachers fairly compensated are some of the requisites necessary to maintain this end.

"As Governor, I favor continued support of our junior and senior colleges which furnish training and leadership in education and other fields.

"Segregation of the races in our public schools has been a policy of this State almost one hundred years without having been challenged by any party at interest until the recent far reaching decision of the Supreme Court of the United States.

"I challenge this decision both legally and morally. It is my conviction that segregation must continue in the public schools and that if elected Governor, I pledge all-out effort backed by 29 years' experience in both State and Federal Courts of the land, to maintain segregation. I will be in a better position to keep the matter

COURTS

"In our judicial system, I continue to strive for further improvement in our Court system to the end the justice be done more speedily, fairly and economically. My efforts in this worthwhile endeavor are well known.

"If elected Governor, I would recommend and work for increases in the existing workmen's compensation law, to children, widows and their dependents to live decently.

"As Governor I will pursue a Christian policy of concern for all which is both morally and economically sound. It is my belief that we should work out practical opportunities for our dependent and exceptional children.

As Governor, I will favor increasing Old Age Assistance to $55.00 per month, an amount which would receive the maximum Federal support.

"Finally, I pledge to you that if elected Governor, I shall put forth every effort to furnish all the people of Mississippi the kind and quality of Christian leadership and unselfish service that will make Mississippi a much greater and more prosperous State.

It is my opinion that if we implement action plans - based upon studies already completed by our educators, our economists and the other leaders of our state, we shall in truth develop our human resources to their greatest capacity, and that we can process and market our raw materials for a greater prosperity.

FROST-BITTEN TREES TO GET NEW LEAVES

Mississippi isn't looking for a "brown summer" because of the late freeze that's made April look like October, according to Dr. J. D. Ray of the Botany Department at Mississippi State College. In the last few days Dr. Ray has answered numerous questions on whether or not many of the trees now draped in fall colors will have to go through summer without leaves.

The answer is, they won't. "Most trees have two or three dormant buds for every one that bursts into leaf," Dr. Ray explained.

"In a matter of days or weeks the warm weather will activate these dormant buds and the trees will be green again."

SOUTHERN'S STUDENT NEWSPAPER AGAIN TAKES TOP HONORS

ATLANTIC - The Student of Mississippi Southern's winning weekly newspaper, done it again.

Editor Jerry Langford of Jackson was notified this week that the Printz has won All-American recognition from the Associated Collegiate Press for the fourth straight year.

Earlier this year, the paper won the coveted Medalist award from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and critics say it is the only college newspaper in the nation to win both top awards for four straight years.

Of the 438 papers entered in the ACP contest, only seven were given All-American rating in the same class with the Printz.

Mrs. Rosa Sigerson had visiting her over the week end and her son, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sigerson, and family of New Orleans.

LETTERS

To the Editor:

The Oasis, Pearllington, Miss., was closed down by New Orleans newspapers because of its long and colorful history. The Oasis and they gave an honest opinion of what they saw and heard.

Gov. White was notified and interrogated by a reported. The governor was very kind and very professional. I agree with the talebearer. I agree with the sheriff of the county, who said, "You damn reporters should keep your mouth out of other people's business."

I know as a fact that a number of people in that area are poor, but when the Oasis opened, they began to prosper and eat better. Now they are being deprived again. The workers, the owners, the people who visit these places are fine people. Did you ever hear about these pleasure-loving people being linked with the Communists or a subversive violation? The answer is "No," and you never will.

The time has come for daily

Newspapers to stop meddling in the private affairs of pleasure-loving people and refrain from throwing family men out of work, which causes much suffering and want.

NOTES FORESTRY by MARION PARKER AREA FORESTER

The flash flood of April 12 did considerable damage to the Mississippi Forestry Commission tree nursery seedling crop at Mt. Olive, but the true extent of the damage will not be known for some time. Nurseryman E. C. Jones reports:

Jones said that heavy rainfall on the nursery area alone caused washing of planted seed beds.

He said that the seeds had not begun to sprout when the flood came, making it impossible to determine the damage to this year's seedling production.

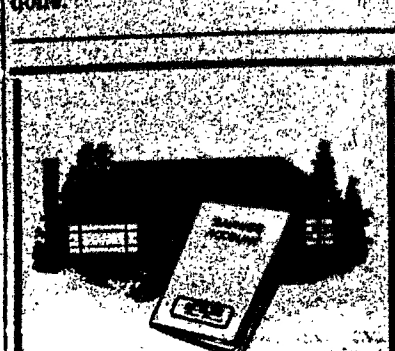

Anticipated production at Mt. Olive had been set at 16 million seedlings, composed of slash, longleaf and loblolly pine seedlings.

Widespread damage was done to trees by the late March freeze (25th through 27th). Now that sufficient time has elapsed for the extent of the damage done by this freeze to be appraised it has become evident that forest trees suffered considerably.

The 1956 crop of Shortleaf Pine cones North of Highway 80 (Vicksburg to Meridian) and the Loblolly crop North of Highway 82 (Greenville to Columbus) have been completely killed. Considerable damage to these species also occurred as far South as Hattiesburg.

In the hardwoods the oaks, hickories, beech and others were hard hit. Trees in exposed locations were hardest hit, showing kill of new growth extensively. In some cases complete kill of individual trees was noted. This is the most extensive damage done to forest trees in many years. It is generally thought that 1946 was the last year in which the same extent of damage was done.

And the where most of the nice things come from when you use our friendly help. Come in!

SO ORDERED by the Election Commissioners, this the 25th day of April, A. D. 1955.

CORN

Grow corn profitably in 1955. Here are some recommendations.

Plant corn on corn land—deep, fairly well drained bottom, second bottom or low upland soils. Seed at the rate of around two gallons of seed per acre. Plant apart on 42 inch rows.

Plant an adapted variety: for South Mississippi — Coker 811; Dixie 17 and 18; La. 521; Funks G 7-37.

Fertilize properly—follow soils test for specific needs. For average soils in hills section use 400 pounds of 8-8-8, 6-8-8 or equivalent under corn and side dress with 60 to 80 pounds of actual nitrogen when plants are knee high. In the Delta, use 120 pounds of nitrogen.

Keep weeds out. They will eat up the plant food and leave little or none for the corn.

COTTON

Planting cotton seed on settled seedbeds insures uniform germination. Uniformity in age of plants makes past emergence oiling and cultivation easier.

Let the soil warm up. Soil temperatures below 60 degrees F. enable soil borne disease organisms to attack young cotton seedlings.

Planting treated seed, planting on well drained seedbed, thrips control, and easy cultivation help maintain a good stand of cotton. Replanting is expensive — seeds are scarce, date of harvest delayed and cost of insect control increased. Use good seed of recommended variety. County agents have lists of the recommended varieties for your areas.

Hill dropped cotton should be thinned to 2 or 3 stalks per hill, depending upon whether spacing in the drill is 6 or 16 inches apart on 48 inch rows. In fertile soils and where higher rates of fertilizer are applied, the number of plants should be increased with wider spaces in the drill.

If irrigation is to be used, indications are that 4 or more stalks per hill, 12 to 16 inches apart will be needed.

Fields for cross-plowed cotton should be drilled at the rate of 60 to 90 pounds of seed cotton per acre. As soon as cotton seedlings are safe for growth, cross-plow on 40-inch centers with cultivator sweep spaced so that 10 inches of the drill will be left.

Farmers who have more than 5 acres of cotton land this year are urged to enter the Mississippi 5-acre contest. Those with less than 5 acres should enter the 2-half-acre contest.

COTTON INSECT CONTROL

Control thrips and cutworms in seedling cotton. For thrips poison when the first pair of leaves spread. A second application is usually 7 to 10 days later near grain fields, ditch banks, pastures and woods.

Look for seedling plants cut off or pulled into the ground. Generally cutworms will be found under clods of dirt among the drill. Poison in needed, and re-examine 3 to 4 days later to determine control obtained.

For specific poison, use rates of application and when to apply, see your county agent and get a free copy of Extension Publication 282, Cotton Insect Control for 1955.

ARTHRITIS?

I have been severely afflicted by rheumatoid arthritis for many years. I have tried many remedies but have found relief in the use of the Arthritis Remedy. I am now free of my suffering and can move about freely. I am a great believer in this remedy and I am sure it will help you if you are afflicted with this terrible disease. Write me for a free trial bottle.

A Report To The Public On The Telephone Strike

Southern Bell deeply appreciates the efforts made by the governors to settle the telephone strike.

We regret that we were not able to convince those who represented the union that the company's proposal for increased wages, expanded arbitration, and other contract improvements is fair and liberal. It protects the interests of the public, the employees and the company.

We will continue our efforts to convince union leaders of its benefits and advantages. We hope we will be successful.

In the meantime, telephone service continues good. Over 30,000 telephone men and women are on the job. More are returning every day.

We are handling our normal volume of long distance calls. Local service is 85 per cent dial-operated, and in the other cities and towns where operators handle the calls, the service is generally normal. Over the South, the messages are going through.

This would not be possible without the great encouragement and co-operation given us by telephone users everywhere, and by the skill and spirit of telephone folks on the job. To both groups go our warmest thanks.
